

1 Stephan Church

Here you are! The center of Vienna.

The biggest church in Vienna, the center of innercity. Here should be a nice start point of your discovery.

2 Peterskirche

Peterskirche (English: St. Peter's Church) is a Baroque Roman Catholic parish church in Vienna, Austria. It was transferred in 1970 by the Archbishop of Vienna Franz Cardinal König to the priests of the Opus Dei.

3 Ankeruhr

A nice designed mechanical clock. Every hour, there will be different famous people in Vienna's history shown up along with a special clock chime tune.

4 Vermählungsbrunnen

The Wedding Fountain, a nice, beautiful fountain located in the inner city of Vienna. The status illustrated the wedding between Maria and Josef, so it's also called Josefsbrunnen.

5 Ruprechtskirche

St. Rupert's Church traditionally is considered to be the oldest church in the city. The church is located in one of the oldest parts of the city.

6 Jesuitenkirche

The Jesuit Church was built between 1623 and 1627 on the site of an earlier chapel, at the time when the Jesuits merged their own college with the University of Vienna's philosophy and theology faculty.

7 Prater Park

The Wiener Prater is a large public park in Vienna. The Prater was firstly mentioned in a document in 1162 under the reign of emperor Friedrich I. In 1766 emperor Josef the II. donated the area to the people of Vienna. From this point on the Prater was accessible for everyone. Following to that bowling alleys, cinemas, Cafés and merry-go-rounds were created.

8 Alte Universität

The Old University of Vienna was built in 1624. It is a splendid, heterogeneous building located in the Inner City, 1st District, which mostly building comes from the 17th and 18th centuries. Today it is still used, but under the name of Austrian Academy of Sciences.

9 Schönbrunn Park

Schönbrunn Palace is a former imperial summer residence in Vienna. The 1,441-room Baroque palace is one of the most important architectural, cultural and historical monuments in the country. The Vienna zoo was founded as an imperial menagerie in 1752, it is the oldest zoo in the world.

10 Albertina

It is one of the largest and most important print rooms in the world with approximately 65,000 drawings and approximately 1 million old master prints, as well as more modern graphic works, photographs and architectural drawings. Including masterpiece of Leonardo da Vinci, and Claude Monet.

11 Nationalbibliothek

The Austrian National Library is the largest library in Austria, with 7.4 million items in its various collections. It was built in 18th century. The library complex includes four museums, as well as multiple special collections and archives.

12 Kunsthistorisches Museum

The Museum of Art History housed in its festive palatial building on Ringstraße, it is crowned with an octagonal dome. The term Kunsthistorisches Museum applies to both the institution and the main building. It is the largest art museum in the country.

13 Naturhistorisches Museum

The Vienna Museum of Natural History's earliest collections of artifacts were begun over 250 years ago. Today, its collections on display cover 8,700 square metres. As of 2011, the museum houses approximately 30 million objects and the number is growing.

14 Hofburg

Part of the palace forms the official residence and workplace of the President of Austria. Built in the 13th century, the palace has housed some of the most powerful people in European and Austrian history, including monarchs of the Habsburg dynasty, rulers of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

15 Parlament

The Austrian Parliament Building in Vienna is where the two houses of the Austrian Parliament conduct their sessions. The foundation stone was laid in 1874; the building was completed in 1883. The building was designed in Greek Revival style.

16 Rathaus

Wiener Rathaus is the city hall of Vienna. Constructed from 1872 to 1883 in a Neo-Gothic style according to plans designed by Friedrich von Schmidt, it houses the office of the Mayor of Vienna as well as the chambers of the city council and Vienna Landtag diet.

17 Burgtheater

The Burgtheater is the Austrian National Theater in Vienna and one of the most important German language theatres in the world. The Burgtheater was created in 1741 and has become known as "die Burg" by the Viennese population.

18 Universität Wien

The University of Vienna was founded by Duke Rudolph IV in 1365 and is one of the oldest universities in the German-speaking world. With its long and rich history, the University of Vienna has developed into one of the biggest universities in Europe, and also one of the most renowned, especially in the Humanities.